P&C Update Term 3 Week 4

We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Mr Mac very recently. One of the things that we admired in Mr Mac was the relationship he had with his students. He had a loyalty to his students and cared deeply for those he taught and in turn his students respected him and had a fierce admiration for him. Our thoughts and love are with his family as well as with those who worked with him, his friends, and students and parents/carers who are deeply affected by this loss. He will be sorely missed at Picton Public School.

Thank you to all for your support last Thursday at our Art Auction. It was an enjoyable day spent with students and families.

Ken Tucker, artist, created a fantastic piece of art work that he painted on the day (to the right). It was very exciting to watch him work! Ken's painting was auctioned off on the day with all money raised donated to the school.

Woolworths Earn & Learn --- UPDATE

Points (stickers) collected so far = 1,700

Finishes Tuesday 19th September

Thank you to everyone who has been shopping at Woolworths and has asked their family, friends, neighbours and work colleagues to put their stickers in our school's collection box at Tahmoor Woolworths. I emptied our collection box on Monday and I couldn't believe it was already half full and it filled a plastic shopping bag.

Our collection box in the office was emptied this week too. Well done to the following students and families for being the first to drop their completed sticker sheets into the box (which is located just inside the office door), Chloe Whyte, Alex Howard, Kayla Millard, Mason Smith and the Halse family who had completed three sticker sheets.

There are some spare sticker sheets on the small table inside the office if you have collected another 60 stickers to complete a sheet. Remember that strips of stickers can be placed inside our school's collection box or at Tahmoor Woolworths, as these will help to fill other student's sticker sheets that may need a few more stickers.

The more we collect, the more we can redeem!

At the end of the promotion, we'll be able to choose from 1000's of great resources thanks to Modern Teaching Aids – Australia's biggest supplier of resources for schools.

Happy collecting!

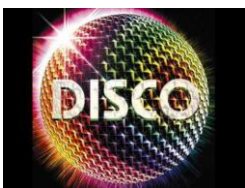

Kristy Smith --- Earn & Learn Coordinator
